Exciting Scene Enacted In Front of George Bernard Shaw Says It Has
New York City Hall. Made Him Friends

BANNER WAS CURSED AMONG MANY WOMEN

Hearst Adherents Become Angered Author of "Mrs. Warren's Profesat What They Deemed an In- sion" Says Those Having Ex-sult to Their Candidate perience In Rescue Work and Protest. Appreciate It.

New York, Nov. 1.—An invasion of the city hall was made Tuesday by a great crowd of men and boys, who were angered at the raising of a Tammany campaign banner on which there was a red flag above the name, "Hearst," and an American flag above the name, "McClellan." The crowd shouting, "Let's tell McClellan what we think of him!" overran the city hall steps for a quarter of an hour until dispersed by the police.

When the immense banner was raised near the monument to Benjamin Franklin, in Park Row, beneath the two flags bearing the inscription, "Under Which Flag" an excited crowd immediately gathered and self-constituted leaders made speeches from the base of the monument. The great triangle at this point was quickly blockaded by a crowd, which howled curses at the banner overhead. Several persons attempted to pull down the banner by climbing the tall poles which supported it, but they were pulled off the poles by members of the mounted police and one man was arrested.

One of the speechmakers was then seized by the crowd and carried on their shoulders toward the city hall, giving directions that his followers should continue the demonstrations. At the city hall a few policemen attempted to stop the rush, but were swept aside, and seeing a few members of the crowd entering the corridors of the building they sent for assistance.

Except for shouting its opinions the crowd showed no signs of violence and made no further attempt to reach the mayor. Until an extra force of police arrived, a mass meeting was conducted on the steps and when the police ordered the gathering to disperse, the order was obeyed in a peaceable spirit. The man under arrest was let go on suspended sentence.

Later, when a man who said he was acting under orders, removed the banner, police reserves were again called out to prevent a crowd from destroying it. It was announced that a regulation campaign banner would be displayed in its place.

ADMITS RESPONSIBILITY.

Nathan Says He Is to Blame For Miss Geary's Condition.

Pittsburg, Nov. 1.—In an extremely nervous condition Morris Nathan voluntarily left with a Massachusetts officer. Said Stage Manager Reinold of the "Shepherd King" company: "Morris Nathan admitted that he is responsible for Miss Geary's condition and that he endeavored to get her out of the trouble. From the admissions made by Nathan there will undoubtedly be something done soon. I will say that a man and a woman will be arrested shortly and the suit case mystery will be cleared without a doubt."

The above statement was given out by Director Harry Moore of the public safety department.

Attorney Henry Siskand accompanied Nathan to Boston, and while waiting for his train at Union station startled the newspaper men by saying that he expected to produce Miss Geary alive. "It has not yet been proven," he said "that the parts of the body found in the suit case were parts of the body of Susan Geary. The head has not been found and the only means of identification are cheap rings, of which there are thousands of identical designs on display in jewelry stores all over the country. We will endeavor to produce Miss Geary alive."

He refuse to say to what extent his firm had information that Miss Geary was alive, but said that he expected to find her.

ELEVEN LEAVE.

That Number of Federal Forces Go Back to Respective Stations.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—The break up of the Federal forces engaged in the fight against yellow fever began Tuesday with the receipt of orders from Surgeon General Wyman, notifying Dr. White that eleven members of the force should be sent back to their respective stations. Dr. Wyman acted on a letter of Dr. White that he could spare that many of his force. Tuesday the officers completed their reports and were busy saying their adieus to Dr. White and others.

Up to 6 o'clock Tuesday there three new cases and two deaths.

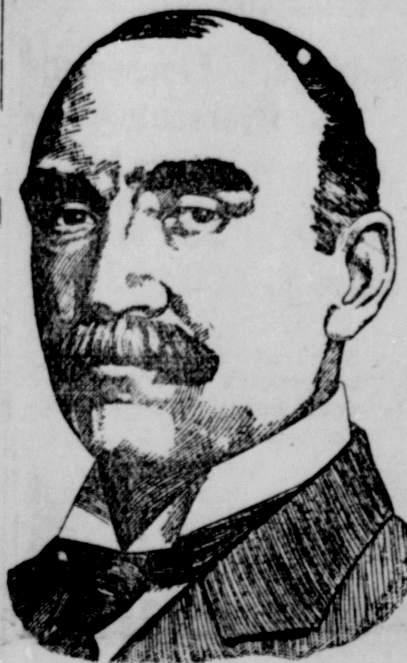

Pensacola's report up to 6 o'clock Tuesday evening is nine new cases and one death.

AISTRAPH ARRESTED.

Charged With Embezzlement of One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—Adolph Aistraph was arrested here on the charge of embezzling $100,000 from the East Asiatic company while he was in the employ of the Imperial Maritime Customs service at Hanky.

New York, Nov. 1.—A cable dispatch from London says: "Your correspondent interviewed George Bernard Shaw with reference to the suppression by New York police of his play, "Mrs. Warren's Profession." Mr. Shaw said: "If Police Commissioner McAdoo earned by his public services the confidence of the American people as a man of higher character and deeper insight into social needs, moral problems and greater concern for the good of the community than I, it is not for me to question his qualifications or incite Mr. Daly to resist his authority. I have a certain reputation in the world which will not be altered by Mr. McAdoo's conviction that I am a blackguard. New York police have a certain reputation in the world and that also will not be altered by my conviction. I know my own business better than they do.

"I am extremely proud of having written the play. It has made me more friends than any other work of mine, especially among serious women. Mr. Daly offered to abide by the verdict of the New York press. For my own part I prefer a jury of public spirited women with experience in rescue work and slum life than to any other jury whatever. They know how society makes vice by refusing to pay virtue decently."

FORMER FLAG FLIES.

Old Union Emblem Struck All Over That Country Now.

Stockholm, Nov. 1.—The old union flag was struck throughout Sweden Wednesday morning and the new Swedish ensign hoisted to the accompaniment of salutes, ringing of church bells and parades of troops. In Stockholm the whole garrison paraded and the population thronged the streets. At 9 o'clock the flag flown by Sweden before the union with Norway was unfurled from church steeples, public and private buildings and steamers and sailing vessels. King Oscar witnessed the spectacle from the roof of the palace, and tens of thousands of citizens gathered in the vicinity and demonstrated greeted him. The Chilean school ship, in the harbor, joined with Swedish vessels in saluting the new flag.

Similar ceremonies took place at all cities, and every schoolhouse in country had a demonstration, the children gathering outside and saluting the flag.

ONLY TWENTY-FOUR.

That Number of Yellow Fever Cases Up to Early Wednesday.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—With only twenty-four cases of yellow fever remaining here and winter rapidly approaching the transfer of the local health situation to the city board of health is considered now a matter of only a very few days. Orders for withdrawal of more Federal surgeons are expected, there being still a number here who are practically unemployed. Quarantines continue to be removed, all restrictions by Arkansas following upon the lifting of the Monroe quarantine, which will open a large section of north Louisiana. The fever has almost disappeared from Mississippi and comparatively few counties in that state continue to maintain the embargo against New Orleans.

Many colleges and private schools opened here and elsewhere in Louisiana this week, including Tulane and Newcomb universities, state university at Baton Rouge and industrial institute at Lafayette.

Up to noon Wednesday there were no new cases of yellow fever and two deaths.

BRYAN, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 2

"THE HUNCHBACK."

An advance notice says: Manager Mike feels that he has secured an attraction of superior merit for his opera house on Friday night, Nov. 3, on which occasion Miss May Stewart and supporting company will present James Sheridan Knowles' romantic comedy, "The Hunchback". Although the company is new to the local theatre-going public, it comes heralded with an Eastern reputation and the strongest endorsements of the press in the different cities where they have appeared this season.

The play is without doubt one of the strongest ever produced, having served a vehicle for Mary Anderson, Viola Allen, Julia Marlowe and other great stars of the profession.

Miss Stewart has starred for the past six years in different Shakespearean productions and is admirably fitted for the difficult role she undertakes.

In the supporting company are Mr. Gray Towler, Mr. Wm. Pfarr, Mrs. Jane Sylvester, Miss Clara Jenkins, Mr. Audley Anderson, Mr. Phil Heaton and others.

An especially noteworthy feature of the production is the costuming, that item alone involving an outlay of several thousand dollars.

The company comes well represented and should be greeted by a large crowd of those of our local playgoers who appreciate the classic drama.

The A. & M. stock judging team left for the Dallas Fair Monday night. The men who went were: A. A. Wright, H. Yakey, J. W. Loving, M. S. Church and John Ashton. They are all stockjudgers of unusual ability, so we predict a good result from this team. A $150 purse is offered for the best stock judger at the fair. Mr. Ashton, a member of the Battalion staff, goes also in the capacity of a state press man.—The Battalion.

We are glad to see the new gravel walks and roads being laid. This is a sure sign of comfort in wet weather. Many will recall the awful condition into which these passage ways have fallen during wet spells in the past. With the gravel bed now being placed there should be no such trouble.—The Battalion.

COMMUNICATION FROM E. J. JENKINS.

Offer to Refund Money if Hyomei does Not Cure Catarrh.

To the Editor of the Eagle:

I have been asked recently if the advertisements printed in your columns regarding Hyomei were true, where I offer to refund the money if this treatment does not cure catarrh. I wish you would please print this letter in as conspicuous a place as possible in your paper, saying that we absolutely agree to refund the money to any purchaser of a Hyomei outfit if it does not cure catarrh.

This outfit consists of an inhaler of a convenient size to be carried in the vest pocket so that the user can breathe Hyomei four or five times daily. With this is included a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The outfit sells for $1.00 and is a most economical treatment, for the inhaler lasts a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' use, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

I trust this letter will settle any doubts that may have arisen as to my willingness to refund the money for a Hyomei outfit, in case the purchaser is not perfectly satisfied.

I wish to say emphatically that my guarantee on Hyomei holds good, and I will refund the money

PLAY STOPPED.

"Mrs. Warren's Profession" Ruled Off New York Stage.

New York, Nov. 1.—All further performances of "Mrs. Warren's Profession," which received its first presentation at New York Monday night, were ordered stopped by Police Commissioner McAdoo.

Mr. McAdoo issued this order after a conference with Mayor McClellan. He stated that any further performance would be a violation of law and those participating in its production would be liable to arrest. The police commissioner was one of the spectators at the play Monday night.

The Tribune declares "Mrs. Warren's Profession" is an affront to good manners and good morals, and the American and World refer to it in a like strain.

COSSACKS CHARGE.

Used Rifles, Lances and Whips and Ten Students Killed.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—The news that Russia has been granted a constitution continued to create enthusiasm until a late hour Tuesday. All work was suspended and streets blockaded with cheering crowds. At the town hall a red flag demonstration was charged by Cossacks, who caused their horses to trample on a number of persons and injured them.

There was considerable pillaging during Tuesday night on the outskirts of Odessa, which students, who organized themselves into the city guard, tried to prevent.

The most serious clash took place at the university, where the students were haranguing the crowds. Cossacks charged using rifles, lances and whips, killing ten and wounding fifty persons. The Cossacks also broke windows of buildings with lances and one student was beaten by thirty policemen. His jaw was broken. Another student was taken to a hospital, where it was shown he had 140 whip stripes on his body.

MISSIONARIES MURDERED.

Five Americans Believed to Have Met This Fate in China.

Hongkong, Nov. 1.—Five American missionaries are believed to have been murdered at Lienchow. Details of the affairs have not yet been received. Lienchow is a city of 12,000 people situated in the western portion of the province of Kwang Tung, at the head of the Gulf of Tonking, not far from the treaty port of Pakhoi.

Dr. Eleanor Chestnut, Mrs. E. C. Machie and child and Mr. and Mrs. Peale were victims of the disturbance at Lienchow mission.

SNOW COVERS CITY.

St. Petersburg Has White Mantle and Crowd's Ardor Dampened.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—A light fall of snow covered the city with its white mantle during the night, but Wednesday morning the weather became cold and a drizzling rain put a damper on the ardor of the crowds, already exhausted by delirium of Tuesday. General Trepoff's warning to manifestants that he would use energetic measures to prevent disorders, coupled with the reappearance of patrols of horse and foot soldiers, also exercised a restraining influence, and agitators experienced difficulty in again arousing the proletariat. Many strikers among the railroad men were ready to return to work and those in favor of continuing the struggle have difficulty in holding a majority. Students and Social Democratic leaders declare that nothing but a democratic republic will suffice and are using every means in their power to keep up the agitation and drive people to armed collisions with troops.

News from provinces shows the whole empire must have been plunged into great excitement Tuesday.

Everywhere the issuing of the manifesto granting Russia a constitution aroused the people to a high pitch of enthusiasm, but everywhere the populace is divided into two camps as in St. Petersburg—those who accepted the boon of freedom with intense joy and who are now denominated Loyalists, and the Extreme Radicals, under the leadership of students of social and revolutionary organizations, who have used the opportunity to preach the complete overthrow of the government. Clashes and sanguinary encounters have occurred at many places. In some towns authorities were forced to obey demands for release of political prisoners. This was the case at Byelostok. Cossacks turned loose and beat the crowds at Kazan, Kishineff, Kieff and other places.

CONFLICTS FREQUENT.

Authorities Are Charged With Disregarding Imperial Manifesto.

Warsaw, Nov. 1.—Disorders continued Wednesday. Conflicts between populace and soldiers were frequent. Authorities are charged with ignoring the imperial manifesto and general depression prevails everywhere. There is a complete deadlock in business and traffic. Even employees of drug stores have again gone out on strike. Streets are full of troops. People are attempting to organize street meetings, but they are promptly dispersed by bayonet charges.

Meeting of Vienna railroad employees was broken up by the police. Crowds flocked to cemeteries on occasion of All Saints' day.

Workmen organized an anti-government demonstration at Pogonski cemetery.

FIRED AT MOB.

Many Persons Killed or Wounded and Others Were Whipped.

Minsk, Nov. 1.—Crowds in an attempt to storm the prison here were beaten off by Cossacks, who fired several volleys at the mob. Many persons were killed or wounded and many more beaten with whips. Doctors' residences were transformed into hospitals.

CONFLICTS CONTINUE.

Thirty-Seven Killed and Eight Others Seriously Wounded.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—Conflicts between Cossacks and students continue. During fighting between troops and Jew in Dalmitskaya street Tuesday night thirty-seven persons were killed and eight seriously wounded.

Five Bodies Taken Out.

Kieff, Nov. 1.—Bodies of five persons killed and forty-five wounded were removed from the town hall. Cossacks while passing the office of Otklik, a Liberal paper, fired three volleys at the building.

Lena Leaves.

STRIKE CONTINUES.

One Demand Is That General Trepoff Must Be Removed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—As Tuesday afternoon wore on the crowds became more unruly and there seemed to be momentary danger of great disorders. Up to 6 p. m., however, no serious collisions had taken place. The workmen all left their work, drifting to the center of the city, massing before the Kazan cathedral. Fully 100,000 persons gathered in the great square completely filling the space between the spreading colonades of the cathedral, whose wings, like St. Peter's at Rome, stretch out like arms on either side. The spectacle was impressive. In the gathering gloom the red banners massed behind speakers on the cathedral steps seemed splashes of blood against the gray, cold, imposing edifice. The orators were mostly students and workmen. Their appeals kindled the wildest enthusiasm in the crowds, which included hundreds of women and girl students. The oratory continued for hours, and while it was in progress a procession was formed, with students at its head, bearing red flags. A cry was set up "To the Bastille!" and the procession started in that direction. Preparations had been made against attempts to storm the political prison, termed the Bastille, and all the afternoon two companies of the Semenofsky regiment and four squadrons of Hussars were drawn up on Shpalerno street, with ample reserves inside. The leaders of the procession, however, had already been advised that Count Witte had announced that an amnesty proclamation was being prepared and led the procession to the Nevsky Prospect and the Nicholas station, followed by an immense crowd, all singing and shouting until complete darkness had settled down before their return. At the Kazan cathedral the procession was joined by the thousands there, and singing the "Marseillaise" and shouting for a constituent assembly, the human tide, now composed of fully 200,000 persons, swept down the avenue and across the palace bridge to the university. In the Vasilostrov district. The shop keepers and all classes were panic stricken, fearing that the mob would get control of the city. The stores were closed and people fled to their homes. The Nevsky Prospect and other streets were boarded up from end to end as a precaution against possible pillage.

The strike committee during the afternoon decided to continue the strike, joining with the students in their demand for the deposition of General Trepoff, general amnesty, the removal of the troops to twenty miles out of the city, and the creation of a national militia.

There were some minor disorders and revolver firing reported during the day at various places. Gendarmes at the Polytechnic Institute fired. Some students are said to have been wounded and eighty-three were made prisoners.

An officer in a restaurant, who refused to doff his cap before a red flag was set upon by a crowd, but he covered his retreat by firing two shots in the air.

A collision between Whites and Reds occurred near Anitchkoff palace. The Reds put the Whites to flight and destroyed their flags.

Mobile, Nov. 1.—A special to the Register from Pensacola says a fire which broke out on Palafox between Garden and Roman streets, about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, was followed by a terrific explosion. A number of business houses have been destroyed and fully $100,000 loss sustained.

Nearly an entire block was blown out by a gas explosion.

ANOTHER ATTACK.

Anti-Hearst Banner Torn Down in Union Square Wednesday.

New York, Nov. 1.—A crowd numbering 1600 or more persons attacked and tore down an anti-Hearst banner in Union square Wednesday. The banner was similar to the one put up in Park Row Tuesday and which was taken down that night by order of Mayor McClellan after a demonstration had been made by a large crowd at the city hall.

No such collection of Men's High Grade Clothing ever brought to Bryan as we are now showing, and every garment an excellent value. Quality is a hobby with us. No suit or overcoat is allowed a place in our stock unless it comes up to our most exacting requirements. This means satisfaction to our customers. This is why our business grows larger each season. We absolutely guarantee our prices to be as low if not lower than you will find elsewhere.

The Clothiers.

As stated in the Eagle yesterday, John and Joe Fazzino and Frank Deninia, the three Italians charged with the murder of the Italian woman near Bryan, some time since, came in yesterday morning at 4 o'clock and surrendered to Sheriff Nall. They were placed in jail where they remained all day, and were last night taken to Cameron for a habeas corpus hearing for bond before Judge J. C. Scott. They were accompanied by an officer and by Lamar Bethea, attorney. Doremus & Butler, Judge A. G. Beard and Lamar Bethea are attorneys for defendants. The habeas corpus hearing is necessary because the parties are under grand jury indictments charging murder. Bail has been agreed upon.

Capt. O. P. Storm of the Caldwell military company has written Capt. H. R. Cavitt that the Caldwell company is going to the state encampment, and will be short of several men on account of the busy season, and he would like to have some of the members of Bryan's disbanded company go to Caldwell a few days before the start to drill with the company and go to the encampment near Austin.

Indigestion Causes
Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

ACTRESSES INJURED.

Singular Coincidence Happening at the Texas State Fair.

Dallas, Nov. 1.—A coincidence in accidents occurred at the Fair Grounds Tuesday night. Miss Lottie Kendall, prima donna of the Olympia Opera company, tripped and fell on the auditorium stage during the production of "Boccaccio," sustaining injuries that required the attention of a physician. The latter had scarcely finished attending Miss Kendall when he was summoned to attend Miss Clara Mae Adams, prima donna of the Bagdad company, who was the victim of a similar accident on the stage of "Beautiful Bagdad."

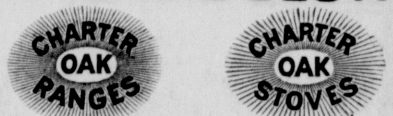

The physician who attended to the injuries of both ladies was a practitioner from an adjoining city, who was visiting the fair, and happened to me in the auditorium at the time of the accident to Miss Kendall. He stated that neither lady was seriously injured, but each had sustained a severe shock.

Miss Adams was said to be the most severely hurt. She suffered several contusions of the inner portion of the right knee joint and a wrenching of her right side. Both ladies were carried to their apartments in carriages, but not until each had acted her part in the play to the fall of the curtain.

Silverstein says he believes the Denver Savings bank will be able to pay 75 per cent of its deposits.

RATHER REALISTIC.

Hallowe'en Celebration Proves Services at a Chicago Residence.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Hallowe'en proved serious in the residence of William Hood. Cleveland Hood, a thirteen-year-old son, was shot during a game of "hold-up" by Frank Wright, a boy of the same age. Young Hood was shot just above the heart. He was taken to a hospital, where an operation was performed, and it is reported that the outcome of the wound was in doubt.

The shooting was accidental. The revolver belonged to Mr. Hood and the boys did not look to see if it was loaded. Henry Cannon and Harry Tuller, two older boys were dressed as girls and a street scene was acted out, where the robber steps from a dark alley and cries: "Hands up or you are dead men!"

Wright was playing the part of the robber. Hood and the masquerading girls were the victims. All went well and Hood showed the proper amount of fright when he found himself looking into the muzzle of a revolver.

As he was muttering the stage talk, his fright became a reality for the "empty" revolver was discharged and the boy sank to the floor.

Wright was taken to the police station, but released.
